AN ACT TO COMPEL CHILDREN
SCHOOL. TO BE ENACTED.

[Approved February 25 1873.]

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every parent, guardian, or other person, in this State, who neglects or omits the charge of a child, or provides, having control and charge of a child, or provides, having control and charge of eight and fourteen years, shall be liable to the public school for each child, or children, for each week in each school year, at least for each child, or children, or consecutive, unless the parent, guardian, or other person, shall be satisfied by the Board of School Trustees of each school district in which such parent, guardian, or other person, is residing, that he or she shall not be liable to the provisions of this act.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Board of School Trustees of each school district in this State, on or before the first Monday in September, in each year to furnish an annual report of each child, or children, resident in the school district, between the first and last of August, and said list to be taken from the report, to the School Census Marshal. At the beginning of each school year, the said list shall be the duty of the principal of each school in the school district to report to the Board of School Trustees of each school district, and the Board of School Trustees of each school district, of each child, or children, attending school during the previous year, when; when it shall appear at the expiration of the year, to the Board of School Trustees, that any parent, guardian, or other person having charge or control of a child, or children, shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this act, and the cause demand to be made upon such parent, guardian, or other person, for the amount of such child, or children, for each week, or weeks, as the Board shall commence proceedings, in the said school district, for the recovery of the fine then due, for each child, or children, if the fine is located; or, if there shall be no justice of the peace therein, then before the nearest Justice of the Peace in the county.

Section 3. Any parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of any child, or children, failing to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense, not more than two hundred dollars, and the second and each subsequent offense, besides the costs of collection.

Section 4. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Board of School Trustees of any school district, in this State that the parent, guardian, or other person, having charge or control of any child, or children, in attendance upon the public school of said district, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be liable to procure suitable books, stationery, etc., for such child, or children, it shall be the duty of such Board of School Trustees, to provide for such child, or children, all necessary books, stationery, etc., the same to be paid for out of the funds of the school district, in the same way that other claims against the school district are now allowed and paid; provided that all books, stationery, etc., purchased under the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be the property of the school district, to be under the care and control of the School Trustees, when not in actual use.

Section 5. All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the County Treasury, for the use of the County.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the County Superintendent of Public Schools in each county, to publish a notice of this act, in a newspaper in his county, for the first time, four consecutive times, annually, for publication to be allowed and expense of such publication to be paid by the County. The Board of School Trustees of the county. The Board of School Trustees of each school district shall cause to be posted, annually, in each school year, in three public places in their district, notices of the requirements and penalties of this act.

Section 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Notice! Notice! Notice!
This notice is hereby given THAT on the 15th day of January, A. D. 1870, at Des Moines, Spring, Station, in Iron County, Utah, I was forced under threat of instant death by several armed men amongst whom were Idaho Bill, John Hansen, Al. Whinn, John Clark, J. D. Shanks and old man Marsh, to sign a note for one thousand Dollars, payable one day after date, to N. H. HARRIS, who received the same. This note was dated January 18th, 1870, and payable one day after date. The note was given without any consideration whatever, but was given solely to save myself from instant death. I said not then and am not now in debt to said N. H. HARRIS any sum of money whatever. I will not pay the note and will not become agent purchasing the same as it was given without consideration and done to save my life.

THE ROSICRUCIAN WERE A SECT OF Philosophers who flourished in Germany
during the seventeenth century, and prosecuted profound researches into Natural Science and the Occult Philosophy, and sought to discover the ELIXIR OF LIFE.

Although some superstition may have been associated among them and other Alchemists search for the Elixir Vitæ, yet there is scientific truth at the bottom of all Alchemy and Astro-LOGY. They were impressed with the properties

HERBAL PREPARATIONS.
And found dynamic and psychologic forces in the extract of certain plants.
